

POLYNESIAN VOYAGING SOCIETY
Packing List—What to Bring on a Sail / Voyage

Review this list with your captain and check off what is necessary / possible to bring. There are limits to what you can take on a canoe. Travel lightly! The canoe is safer with less weight, less baggage on board.

- ___ License / ID
- ___ Money / Credit cards
- ___ Medical card
- ___ Passport

GEAR

- ___ 48 qt. cooler - "Igloo brand"
- ___ Sea Bags or Garbage bags
- ___ Small duffle bag - For gear not going in your or dry bags
- ___ Gear Hammock - Hang inside your compartment
- ___ Hip packs - For carrying your essentials around on land or on the canoe

- ___ Light sleeping bag or blanket
- ___ Sleeping Pad
- ___ Rain Tarp / Tent
- ___ Mask / fins / snorkel
- ___ Flashlight
- ___ Extra batteries
- ___ Log book, writing tools
- ___ Camera / film
- ___ Paperback books
- ___ Walkmans / Tapes / Radios (Radios are prohibited on long voyages navigated without instruments)
- ___ Roll of small line
- ___ Knife and fid
- ___ Ball of wax
- ___ Small roll duck tape

- ___ Sunscreen
- ___ Chapstick
- ___ Insect Repellent

- ___ Wash cloth
- ___ Towels
- ___ Sea soap / Shampoo
- ___ Tooth brush / Tooth paste
- ___ Dental floss
- ___ Small mirror
- ___ Razor
- ___ Deodorant

Note: Feel free to add to this list of toiletries (e.g., female stuff), but remember not to get too extravagant—the bath tub is definitely out.