

COME & VISIT THIS CANOE

CROSSING OCEANS & CONNECTING PEOPLE HAWAI'I TO CAPE TOWN

Navigated only by stars and other natural elements, the traditional Hawaiian voyaging canoe Hōkūleʻa is covering over 60,000 nautical miles, 100 ports, and 27 nations. As she sails around the world, her crew are discovering stories of hope from communities like yours so that we can share traditional and new technologies to solve challenges faced by our ocean and Earth.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 2015

★ EDUCATORS' MEETUP
9:30AM-2PM | TWO OCEANS AQUARIUM
V&A WATERFRONT, DOCK RD.

Participate in "Wa'a (canoe) Talks," a program that connects Hawai'i's teachers with global classrooms and communities focusing on Mālama Honua—caring for island Earth.

★ CANOE TOUR & OUTREACH
10AM-1PM
AT V&A MARINA QUAY 6

Come aboard the canoe and meet our voyagers from Hawai'i. Hear about traditional navigation & Hawaiian culture and learn to care for the ocean and island Earth.

SCHOOLS, FAMILIES & VISITORS WELCOME!

More information and updates at Hokulea.com/africa

